

professional women's network

PWVN
st. croix valley together we can achieve more.

PRESS RELEASE: APRIL 2009

Samantha Bluhm presents Powerful Problem Solving at the April 2nd St. Croix Valley's Professional Women's Network (PWN) meeting.

Using the crisis principles of Apollo 13, this workshop will help you learn to creatively problem solve, "work the problem," and focus on what is working in your organization to develop powerful, problem-solving teams that create positive experiences for your customers.

Samantha Bluhm is a self-proclaimed rule-breaker and round peg in a square hole. She is a master-certified life and business coach through the Learning Journey's International Center of Coaching and has a journalism degree from the University of Wisconsin – River Falls. She founded the Navigator Group in January of 2005 with an emphasis on small business empowerment in marketing and leadership. Samantha is the author of the book Olive Juice and publisher of The Compass magazine.

A high-energy, upbeat individual, Samantha is an author, workshop leader and motivational speaker who impacts and inspires people to find the power of perspective in their leadership, attitude, families and communities.

PWN now meets at The Hudson House/Best Western in the Hearth Room. Registration and networking begin at 6:00. Guests are welcome – be sure to bring business cards! Professional Women's Network – St. Croix Valley fosters the personal and professional efforts of area career women through an exchange of knowledge, ideas, resources, experiences and friendship. Together we can achieve more. Register for the meeting at www.pwnscv.com. For more information, contact Tina Bailey at 715 441-1008.